KLETTERSTEIG

MAY 15 | JULY 17

Looking for a new way to get vertical in your local area? The Klettersteig is similar to rock climbing because it uses much of the same safety equipment. However, rather than climbing up the rock face, you traverse the face on an established route. Participants are attached by a self-belay system to a steel cable that runs the length of the route. The Klettersteig, or "Via Ferrata" in Italian, was originally used by the Italian military as a means of transporting troops and supplies through the Dolomites during WWII. Join us to experience this exhilarating activity. No prior climbing experience necessary. Registration prior to the day of event is encouraged. Price: $35. Includes transportation, equipment and guide.

Do you think "spelunking" is a derogatory term? If so, let us clarify and get you on a 3-hour underground tour. Join us as we travel to the Bismarck Grotte. Your underground tour culminates with a 25-foot chimney climb out of the depths of the cave. This cave is one of the largest underground cave systems in our area. Some of the passages are tight. HUNTING in Europe and Germany is steeped in customs and traditions and has often been exclusively for the upper classes until the last 30 years or so. Gun ownership in Germany is a privilege not a right and they have strict guidelines that must be followed to own, store and fire a weapon. One way to possess a firearm is to pass an authorized hunting course HFSS offers. The Hunting course lasts approximately 10 weeks and meets all the requirements of German law. The course includes blocks of instruction on safety, customs, traditions, shooting, proper weapons handling, laws, and all game animals found in Germany.

The HFS program is a great resource for upcoming hunts. We help you in finding hunting opportunities in the local area with state authorities and private hunters. Our office assists with the submission for registering firearms and contact information for purchase firearms from private personal.

USAG Bavaria has one hunting area set aside exclusively for U.S. hunters. The on-post hunting area is utilized by applying in the early spring for a lottery in which the opportunity to purchase one of ten permits will be raffled. The permit is valid from May 1 until January 31 at a cost of €300. If your name is selected you will have five working days to pay the fee or the next person drawn will receive your slot. Applications are being accepted from March 1 – April 12. The on-post area is an individual driven program where the maintenance, upkeep, and feeding all handled by the permit holders with guidance from the HFSS program manager. This is a great opportunity to see how German hunters are expected to manage their hunting areas and will also present a once in lifetime opportunity to view and harvest game we would normally not see in America.

*A valid German Hunting License is required to participate in the lottery.

On the following Sunday we take the train to Munich and walk the route of the "Bier Hall Putsch" and see nearly everything associated with this darkest period of Munich's history. Price: $45 per adult.

PARTNACH GORGE & ALPSPITZ WELLENBAD

The Alpspitz Wellenbad is the town's largest pool, and the best spa in the local area. There are three saunas, a steam bath, Jacuzzi, warm pools, cold pools, diving pools, an Olympic pool, salt pools, salt treatments, eating and drinking areas, a bar, numerous lounging areas, "clothing required areas" as well as "textile free areas" and just about everything you might want to experience during the most relaxing day of your life. This seven-hour tour includes the walking tour and entrance price to the spa. Price: Gorge and Wellenbad $30; Wellenbad $26; Gorge $10 (Children under 12 are half price).

GARMISCH HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

APRIL 19 | JULY 12

Where were the witches burned? What is the story behind the statue of the woman and the decapitated head? Why are the buildings painted with religious art? This tour is packed with answers to all of your Garmisch questions and other fun Garmisch facts. We may even have time for a Bier and some food in one of Garmisch's best restaurants after the tour has finished. Price: $10 per adult; free for children under 12.

SHAKESPEARE MARATHON: SHAKESPEARE IN LOVE

APRIL 20

Shakespeare can be profound in a funnier key as well. And it is the opinion of the Czech/British dramatist Tom Stoppard that one can have great fun speculating what Shakespeare might have been like before he became.... well...."Shakespeare." What was it like when he was a struggling writer working on a play called "Romeo and Ethel, the Pirate's Daughter?" It might have gone somewhere if only the young William had not fallen hopelessly in love with someone and changed himself and the world forever. Price: $5 per person.

PARTENKIRCHEN HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

APRIL 26 | MAY 25 | JULY 19

Partenkirchen is the older of the two sides of Garmisch-Partenkirchen and therefore has a wealth of historic sights. Highlights include the "Plague Chapel" put up during the Thirty Years' War, some great frescoes visible on many private homes, the State School for Woodworking, the Partenkirchen Kurpark, and some wonderful stories about Ludwig the Bavarian, Henry the Lion, and St. Mark. There is a good chance to have dinner or a drink afterwards for those who are interested. Price: $10 per adult; free for children under 12.

SHAKESPEARE MARATHON: OTHELLO

APRIL 27

"Demand me nothing!" Promise to deliver a shocking talk on the nature of love and evil in one of Shakespeare's darkest plays. You may never trust your spouse again! Or anyone else for that matter. This play is an outrage to Plato and his philosophy. It is a disgrace to Christianity or indeed, any other religious position. Issues are introduced by Shakespeare that no one can elucidate. Lago is one of Shakespeare's most frightening creations. Dare to sit in your seat unmoved by his behavior! Price: $5 per person.

SHAKESPEARE MARATHON: THE TAMING OF THE SHREW

MAY 4

Franco Zeffereilli's "The Taming of the Shrew" is a classic by any standard! Part of the attraction is that he cast Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton as Katarina and Petrucchio in the film – basically playing themselves as they shocked the world back in the days when they were filming Cleopatra and various divorce suits were filed as the tabloids luxuriated in the daily scandals. But it is a cheap shot to say that they did not understand the Shakespearean roles which they were playing and the play is absolutely true to form. And funny...very funny! Price: $5 per person.

ERDINGER THERME GALAXY

MAY 7

It is now the largest SPA in Europe! Fourteen Water Slides – one of them longer than three American football fields added together! Twenty-five saunas differing in temperature and humidity. Massages, relaxation areas, pools of every description. Ever since drilling for oil in Erding and discovered geo-thermal hot water instead, this town has become a destination for people who just want to enjoy the most relaxing day that they have EVER experienced. Do not forget - there are areas where swimming suits are required as well as some "textile free" areas! Price: $15 per person. Admission to pool and various other amenities are paid for individually according to services desired. All day ticket to Spa is approximately €43. Not appropriate for children.

FIVE HUNDRED YEARS OF BAVARIAN BIER PURITY: TOUR TO ALDERSBACH MONASTERY

MAY 8

The Bavarian House of History presents a significant exhibit every summer focusing on some aspect of Bavarian History. For 2016, the organization has decided to focus on the Bier Culture and the role it has played in Bavaria – especially in the last 500 years since the Bavarian Bier Purity Law specified what ingredients could be used in the frothy substance. The exhibit is on for the entire summer and we are going to Aldersbach on Mother's Day to tour the exhibit. We'll have lunch, see the local baroque church architecture and sample whatever beverages are on order. Expect to return happier, healthier and much more knowledgeable about a seldom-neglected subject! Price: $30 per adult. Includes transportation, admission and guided tour to museum exhibition.

GARMISCH HISTORIC WALKING TOUR FOR RICHARD STRAUSS'S 152nd BIRTHDAY

JUNE 11

Richard Strauss is undoubtedly Garmisch-Partenkirchen's best known resident. He lived here from 1908 until his death at the age of 85 years in 1949. To mark the 40th anniversary of his death, the city of Garmisch-Partenkirchen established a Richard Strauss Festival, which opens this year on his birthday - June 11, 2016. This will be a special version of the Historic Walking tour. It will include all the usual things but with an added emphasis on the Richard Strauss Festival. At the end of the tour, we'll be heading to the Olympic Ice Stadium for a performance of one of his favorite Strauss operas. Elektra is the great story of an unforgiving princess who lives only to nurse the grudge against her mother and to see her axed to death! Powerful stuff by Strauss – no wonder Sigmund Freud said that little girls need to resolve their Elektra Complexes just like little boys need to resolve their Oedipus Complexes. Join this tour and hear all about it! This tour is packed with answers to all of your Garmisch questions and other fun Garmisch facts. We may even have time for a Bier and some food in one of Garmisch's best restaurants after the tour has finished and before Elektra starts. Price: $10 per adult; free for children under 12.

SHAKESPEARE IN PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC *

APRIL 22-24

Famously William Shakespeare, who probably never left the British Isles in his short lifetime, refers in his play "The Winter's Tale" to the "Coast of Bohemia." Great writer, the bard, - just not too accurate in his geography regarding the land-locked Bohemia! However, there is a reason to celebrate the 452nd Birthday as well as the 400th anniversary of his death on Saturday, April 23 in Prague. The Golden City is going to perform the opera "Romeo and Juliette" by Charles Gounod to celebrate its lack of a Bohemian coastline! The capital of the Czech Republic has the famous Charles Bridge, and Old Town Square, the beautiful St. Vitus Cathedral in the Old Castle and a wonderful tradition of music making by "Bohemians" of all stripes. We usually attend an opera in one of Prague's three opera houses where the performances are inexpensive and subtitled in English. Paul gives an excellent tour of the Franz Kafka Museum as well as the grandiose series of 20 paintings by Alfons Mucha known as "the Slav Epic." On the short tour, we stop in Pilsen briefly for a great restaurant and introduction to unfiltered and non-pasteurized beer. Price: $290 per adult; Single supplement $45 per night; $145 per child. Includes hotel accommodations, breakfast and transportation.

VENICE & VERONA, ITALY *

APRIL 29-MAY 1 | JUNE 3-5 | JULY 22-24 | SEPTEMBER 9-11

In just one short weekend, you will see both Venice and Verona! On Friday afternoon, we drive to Vicenza where we will spend the night. Early Saturday morning, we make the short train trip to Venice where we will see great art and architecture, the Accademia and the Scuola di San Rocco, pigeons in St. Mark's Square, gondolas and more. We will again spend the night in Vicenza before our trip to Verona on Sunday. In Verona, we have the opportunity to tour the famous Romeo and Juliet city with its Roman Arena before dining at a wonderful restaurant. Price: $299 per adult; Single supplement $45 per night; $145 per child. Includes hotel accommodations, breakfast and transportation.

PRAGUE & PILSEN, CZECH REPUBLIC *

MAY 27-30 | SEPTEMBER 2-5

The Golden City just gets better and better. Spared extensive bombing damage in WWII, Prague still has an authentic feel to its wonderful architecture. The capital of Bohemia has the famous Charles Bridge, Old Town Square, the beautiful St. Vitus Cathedral in the Old Castle and a wonderful tradition of music making by "Bohemians" of all stripes. We usually attend an opera in one of Prague's three opera houses where the performances are inexpensive and subtitled in English. We'll have a tour of the Franz Kafka Museum as well as Alfons Mucha's cycle of 20 Paintings known as "The Slav Epic." This tour includes a visit to the Pilsner Urquell Brewery in Pilsen. Pilsen also has a great restaurant and we can have an introduction there to unfiltered and non-pasteurized beer. Price: $390 per adult; Single supplement $45 per night; $195 per child. Includes hotel accommodations, breakfast and transportation.

NUREMBERG GETAWAY: OPEN AIR CONCERT *

AUGUST 5-7

Nuremberg is really a perfect weekend away: fairly close, still in Bavaria, inexpensive by comparison with many other places and it has many varied attractions. The famous Kaiserburg (the main castle of the Holy Roman Empire) sits on the top of the central hill within the city walls. Richard Wagner chose this city as the scene for his operatic drama "The Mastersingers of Nuremberg." Adolf Hitler appreciated the historic credentials and made it the background for his greatest propaganda rallies during the Third Reich. The allies understood that it had become the perfect venue to press charges against some of those same personages at the famous "Nuremberg Trials" following World War II. The Nuremberg Documentation Center is the best museum on the history of the Nazis. The German National Museum is one of the best for the cultural aspects of German History. The entertaining group known as STOMP is performing at the Opera House. This group specializes in making rhythmic noise/sounds with the most pedestrian of everyday items – cans, brooms, cigarette lighters, and drums, drums, DRUMS. Price: $250 per adult; Single supplement $45 per night; $125 per child. Includes hotel accommodations, breakfast and transportation.

VERONA, ITALY: OPERA UNDER THE STARS *

AUGUST 19-21

These trips have always been some of our most popular ones - two overnights in Verona at a small pensione in the heart of the old city and two nights of open-air opera with many intervals filled with fine dining. We dine at a riverside restaurant south of Verona. Here we take in some genuine gourmet food during a three-hour meal. That evening we have our first opera -Puccini's Turandot - in the 2000-year-old Roman arena. We sit on the Roman blocks of stone under the stars, dressed in shorts and t-shirts and have a picnic that makes even the Italians envious. The next day we dine in Verona itself at a restaurant owned by two brothers - and Mama or her new assistant cook in the kitchen. Maybe there is time for a short siesta before we go to the second opera - Bizet's Carmen - that evening. Price: $299 per adult; Single supplement $45 per night; $145 per child. Includes hotel accommodations, breakfast and transportation.

CONQUER THE ZUGSPITZE OVERNIGHT HIKE

JUNE 18-19 | JULY 16-17 | SEPTEMBER 17-18

At least once, in your life you have to stand on Germany's highest peak, kiss the historic cross and say, "yeah, I climbed this!" The Zugspitze has two glaciers 3600 ft. cliffs on three sides, divides Germany and Austria and has the Partnach and Hoellental gorges. Day one; we hike 6-8 hours through the Reintal valley and stay at the Reintalangerhütte, one of the most famous and colorful huts in the Alps. Day two we continue up steeper slopes to the Zugspitzplatt where the ski area is. From there, those who want to continue can scale up the rock "Klettersteig" to the cross. Price $149 per person, $120 children. Includes overnight with breakfast & dinner, cable car down, hiking poles, harness and guide.
